STRATHCONA NEWS

NEW PASTOR
BEGINS WORK

Rev. Mr. Bowen Preached for the First Time at the Baptist Church Yesterday.

Rev. J. C. Bowen, formerly of Dan-Rain, Man., began his pastorate in the Strathcona Baptist church yesterday. There were large congregations in attendance, both morning and evening, the number present at night being more than ordinarily large. Rev. Mr. Bowen delivered two very forcible sermons, speaking in the morning from Hebrews 13, 20-21, and in the evening from Numbers 22, 23. The new pastor is a pleasing and effective speaker and his ministry in Strathcona is looked forward to with the expectation of much success. Mrs. Bowen and child are visiting for a week with friends in Calgary. In the meantime Mr. Bowen will reside at the parsonage which is being occupied till July by Mrs. Corey and family.

MASS MEETING.

A mass meeting of the different churches of the city will be held in the Baptist church this evening at 8 o'clock at which an address will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Rochester, vice-president of the Dominion Lord's Day Alliance.

PACKING PLANT CONTRACT.

The contract for the lot and concrete work on the new packing plant at the East end has been let to the May-Sharpe Construction Co., Ltd. It is estimated that 1,500,000 bricks will be used. The amount of the May-Sharpe contract is in the neighborhood of $100,000.

LOCALS.

Northern Star Lodge, No. 8, of Strathcona will reorganize tomorrow night. A large number of candidates will be put through.

Mr. Mylon, provincial organizer of the W. C. T. U., will address a mass meeting in the Presbyterian church tomorrow (Tuesday) evening, at eight o'clock.

A match game of football is scheduled to be played this evening at the recreational grounds between Strathcona and All Saints, Edmonton.

Mrs. M. K. Reid, of Remy River and Mrs. Doris Stewart, Winnipeg, are the guests of Mr. O. Bush and his sister, Mrs. Gravel.

Rod McKernan has purchased a new automobile from J. E. Trevelyan. W. H. Sheppard and Jos. Beauchamp leave shortly on a ten-day holiday trip to the coast.

The Strathcona football team and All Saints, Edmonton, will likely go to Camrose on the 24th and take part in the celebration to be held there. The basketball team will go to the Fort and play the Edmonton team.

R. Wauvriest has purchased from O'Neill & Co., the milk-white team of Brazilian horses that have attracted so much attention in the streets of this city and Edmonton the last week or two. The horses are five and six years old and the O'Neill's were offered a long price for them at Wauvriest on the way west but did not care to break the car. The team was sent to Toronto to exhibition last fall, from London, and commanded much admiration there. They were better young and have within the last two years done service at more wedding than any other team in the forest city—Chronicle.

A Spectacular Rescue.
New York, May 19.—A young girl named Frances Herz, aged seventeen years, regretting her resolve to suicide on Saturday, recovered herself by the help when she touched the water. Her cries were heard by three men on the shore. In the darkness, they could not at first discover her, but, led by the marbling of the swimming steamer, found her and effected the rescue.

From One Day To The Other

Revelation.

Oh, mocking bird, I did you grievous wrong. Once, when I thought you but a simple bird And over music, noisy, free of word While yet the fragrant summer nights were young.

There came an hour when Love, revealing, strong, Stood at my side and hushed me, and The dark close silence of a sudden

By a restless rapture of your song. Now, when afar to waiting wood and hill Trembles exquisite clear your sweet

Before the passion of the melody. All the slow pulses of my being thrill, And all my heart pours out a silver flood Of answering—half pain, half ecstasy.

—Nannie Byrd Taylor.

A Daily Thought.

The Christian Faith is like a grand cathedral with divinely-arched windows. Standing without, you see no glory, nor can possibly imagine any—standing within, every ray of light reveals a memory of unpeakable splendor.

—Hawthorne.

Something About Doctors.

"Kit" of the Mail and Empire has been writing in what one would call a woman's way—none the less charming for that—about an "angust" profession that has since the days of Aesculapius taken itself very seriously.

"Why young men crowd into the medical profession," says Kit, is beyond one's thought. Of all professions it demands most and pays least. The doctor is supposed to be able to arrest death.

He, alone, of all trades and professions, is forbidden to advertise. He is supposed—God bless the mark!—to be in his little spider parlor to catch flies, which refuse to be caught. Of late, in Toronto, the profession—per Medical Council orders no doubt—is all but forbidden to put up a shingle.

"A modest brass plate where no one will see it is the 'gentle' thing. Doctors, of course, and their families can live on gentility, which makes a shining effort in the street, and can starve in the kitchen for all the community care. The doctor's bill is the last to be paid, and then it is paid grudgingly.

Yet the telephone rings imperiously at any hour; the doctor's horse goes out with the doctor at any old hour, to see a woman in a hysterical fit, or send a cross baby to sleep, or see an old woman with a stitch in her side, but when the often too much on his eyes, in how contemptuously it is cast aside, or how angrily it is commented upon.

Let the doctor wait by all means. He is too well off as it is. He has neither rent nor taxes nor anything to pay. His education cost him little or nothing. Pay the greaser, the butcher, even the landlady, but—let the doctor wait!"

As Kit says, the doctor alone—of all trades and professions—is forbidden to advertise. Why? nobody outside their own circles know. It is a law made by themselves at some traditional period, and will probably linger on a long while even in this unrelenting age.

The comments of Kit, as one who knows, were evoked by the perusal of an article in the current World's Work. This runs in part:

"The doctor makes no secret of the fact that he bases his charges partly on the service rendered and partly on the patient's ability to pay. The well-to-do classes resent this as an injustice; the poorer classes ignore it and complain equally loud; the doctor still insists that the burden of his ministry to the suffering poor should be shared by the well-to-do. If he were to be paid for all—or most—of the professional visits he makes, he could afford to cut his prices in two; but the ethics of his calling demand that he respond to every ring of his bell, however, regardless the prospect of compensation. The reputable physician who would demand financial references before putting his finger on the pulse is as rare as the steamboat captain who deserts his passengers when the ship strikes—and shares the same odium. He would be forced out of the ranks of any reputable medical society in America. That he should not permit no counsel any new formula whose merits he discovers; that he should give to his profession the rights to all instruments he may invent or improve; that he should leave his family or his bed at any hour at the call of any man; that he should risk his own life and that of his child, dead whenever an epidemic breaks out—all this and more is accepted by the public as a matter of course.

His is a thankless task, for the doctor has no press agent. The only member of the community who realizes the extent of his public service and the smallness of his recompense is the doctor's wife.

"Yes," says Kit to this, "the doctor's wife is the one who knows."

An Elevator Incident.

Above one of the elevators on the ground floor of a skyscraper in the East, there is a sign which reads: "No stop above the eleventh floor." Recently a rustic Jewyishman with his wife was in the building looking for some way to get upstairs, and the sign caught his eye.

"Look at that sign, will you, Mary! It's pointing to it as he held Mary by the arm.

"Yes, I see it, Henry," she replied, patiently. "What of it?"

"Well, I don't know. Wait till I ask the man." And he went up to the despatcher. "Say, mister," he inquired, "if the darn thing don't stop above the eleventh floor, how far does it go?"

BUSTER BROWN'S PHILOSOPHY.

That precocious youngster, Buster Brown, occasionally shares himself through his medium—Mr. Outcast—of some quite wise opinion. This is one of his latest efforts. Resolved that if you will play with fire you must expect to get burned. If you abuse your stomach you'll get a fine case of dyspepsia. If you overeat you'll be treated mean. You bet that's true.

Yes, but can anything you want in this world, if you go after it with good, bad or indifferent; but don't kick at what you get with it, because everything has its price."

SOCIAL.

Mrs. Riddell leaves tomorrow for Calgary, where she will spend a week. Mrs. C. B. Filmore, 427 Eighth st., will receive Tuesday, May 21st, and not again this season.

The engagement is announced in the East of Miss Grace Macdonald of Cornwall, to Mr. South of Edmonton.

Mrs. Masman, accompanied by her little daughter Kathleen, leaves this week to spend the summer at their country place on the Saskatchewan.

The engagement is announced in Montreal of Miss Frances Mary Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harrison to Mr. Percy Barton of Calgary.

Mrs. Harrison returned on Saturday night from Atlanta, Georgia, where she had spent two or three weeks visiting her sister.

Mrs. D. Harrison left last week for the Coast, where also will spend a month. Dr. Harrison accompanied his wife to Calgary.

The Golf Club had its formal opening on Saturday afternoon, when the guests were entertained by the club. Look on as well as for the more energetic members who have the "ancient and royal game" across the new links. A couple of ladies who are active members of the club, assisted by a group of young ladies, dispensed the club's hospitality in the afternoon.

Miss Margaret Clarke left on Saturday for her home in Prince Edward Island, before leaving, Miss Clarke was presented with a handsome gift basket by the young ladies of the Education Department.

The presentation was made at the home of Miss Edith Webster on Friday afternoon, the pretty gift carrying with it many expressions of good wishes.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mrs. Fields, Twelfth street, will not receive tomorrow on account of the death of her mother.

ANOTHER MISMATED PAIR.

Widow of Charles Yerkes Buks Divorce from Youthful Husband.

New York, May 20.—Mrs. Adelaide Yerkes-Minor, widow of Charles T. Yerkes, the millionaire traction engineer of Chicago and London, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from her youthful husband, Wilson Minor, today.

By the terms of the decree, Mrs. Yerkes-Minor may resume her maiden name, and may marry should she choose to. The marriage of the wealthy widow and the young Californian, many years her junior, a few weeks after her husband's death, created wide public interest.

She asked that a divorce be granted on statutory grounds. The same was unopposed and the decree was granted by Judge Bowling in the supreme court on the recommendation of the referee. None of the proceedings before the referee will become public, as his report is sealed.

Since the rich strike the Directors have decided on selling only 200,000 shares. The first shipment will be made in about 90 days and the amount that will be realized therefrom and the stock sold up to that time will be sufficient for all development purposes. The balance of the stock will remain in the treasury insuring larger dividends on small amount of stock issued.

STOCK STILL OFFERED AT PAR

One Dollar per share. The rich strike on property No. 1 continues to improve and the vein has grown larger. The vein since the first assay published ($2,742.50 per ton) has shown higher values during the last few days. Report just received from Superintendent shows that the ore received from property No. 1 promises to assay as well as our rich strike on claim No. 1.

CUBA WILL HAVE HER LITTLE SAY

At Hague Conference. Is in Favor of Submitting National Disputes to Arbitration.

New York, May 19.—Cuba will make her debut at The Hague conference at the invitation of the Czar of Russia and upon the question of debt collections by the powers from the republics for Central and South America, she will be heard at length. General Ferrer in outlining Cuba's position before the Hague, said today: "On the very large questions that will come before the peace conference Cuba, of course, will play no important part. As a republic, we are under the control of the United States and any question that arises in the Hague which affects that country will be considered affecting us also, and upon these questions our interests lie with the United States. Cuba favors giving the commission of arbitration at the Hague more authority and will urge that all international differences and disputes be submitted to arbitration. Cuba is ever for peace among nations. Naturally, Cuba views with much pleasure all moves toward disarmament, but on that question, we can say little at the Hague, for that must be left to the large powers."

TO APPLY FOR CHARTER.

RIVER HEIGHTS

RIVER HEIGHTS

The beautiful residential sub-division of River Heights is now being offered for sale for the first time at prices and terms which bring home sites within the reach of all.

River Heights takes in the south-easterly 50 acres of river lot 19, all within the city limits of Edmonton, and 50 acres of river lot 21, adjoining the boundary line of the city. A circle with the Alberta hotel for a centre and a radius of one mile cuts the property in the middle.

The inauguration of a street car service will bring all this property within a ten minute ride of the busiest part of either city. The property which Premier Balfour recently gave Strathcona for a park is right at the south end of the River Heights sub-division.

As a homestead nothing better has ever been offered. The prices are not inflated. They are placed low for a quick sale, but only a limited number of lots are to be sold and these are to be placed, as far as possible in the hands of actual home builders.

Municipal improvements, such as water works, light, sidewalks, etc. will all be forthcoming within a year or so on account of this fact. The home building is to be encouraged.

The lots which are not sold on the first sale will be less of the market until these improvements are secured and the owners will do everything in their power, by petition and a willingness to bear a fair share of the rates involved, to see that these improvements are secured at once.

This is not an "out on the prairie" proposition. It is right in town. If you want to see the property, come to the office and take a drive over it with us. It will only take a few minutes of your time and may make you hundreds of dollars.

There are 11 view lots in R.L. 19 to be sold. These lots are 50 x 150. They overlook the City of Edmonton, the parliament buildings and have a clear view of five miles of the Saskatchewan River. No finer lots were ever offered at any price. These eleven are going at $1,000 each, one-third cash; balance 6 and 12 at 7 per cent.

In block 5 of R.L. 19 there are a limited number to be sold at from $300 to $500, terms the same. In blocks 4, 3, 2 and 1 the lots that are being offered will go at $200 for inside lots and $275 for corners. Size of lots, 50 x 150 feet for 20.

In sub-division of River Lot 21, there are from $125.00 to $150.00 for inside lots and $200.00 extra for corners. Size of lots, 1-2 chain by 2 chains. There are 11 View Lots in R.L. 19 which will go at $1,000 each, one-third cash, six and twelve months, seven per cent interest.

Now Offered for The First Time

A beautiful Residential Sub-Division within the City Limits of Strathcona and less than one mile from the Edmonton Post Office.

RIVER VIEW LOTS UNEQUALLED IN THE PROVINCE OF ALBERTA.

Choice homesites easy of access to either city. The construction of the Street Railway will bring them within 15 minutes of the business centres.

Beautiful View Lots $1,000 each

One Third Cash; Balance 6 and 12.

Inside Lots $125 to $350

CHICAGO WHEAT.

New High Points For All Options—Universal Opinion That America Will Have Short Crop Will Not Down—Heavy Selling.

Chicago, May 17.—New high record marks for the season were established in all the leading options of wheat on the board of trade during a session that for volume of trade eclipsed any previous year known. Wheat for July delivery sold at $1.02 5/8, a price more than two cents above the former high record point. September advanced to 103 1/4 and December to 103 7/8. Part of the gain was subsequently lost in profit-taking, but the market closed strong, with July showing a net gain of 1 1/2 cents for the day. September is up 1 3/4 cents and December 1 1/4 cents.

Coarse grains showed in the usual seasonal advance, July corn closing at 62 1/2 and gain of 3 1/2 cents to 7 1/2 cents. Oats were up 1 1/2 cents and provisions were up 10 to 15 cents higher. The wheat market throughout the entire day was extremely nervous and trading grain since the 1st inst. DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW. Brick Wholesale Trade in Fall Goods—Railway Gross Earning Jump 16 Per Cent—Largest Imports and Exports on Record.

New York, May 17.—R. G. Dun's and Co. weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: Improvement in retail trade follows the advent of seasonable weather at many points and payments were more prompt. Seasonal advances in prices of farm products, especially wheat, followed reports of extensive damage to the crops, but frequent reaction, emphasizing the speculative nature of the rise, and tended to restore confidence. Wholesale trade in fall goods is brisk from all points except where the crops have been seriously injured, and the net result of this forward business makes the outlook for the future fairly satisfactory. Many returning plants are kept busy, and the crops have been seriously injured, and the net result of this forward business makes the outlook for the future fairly satisfactory.

The official report for April has passed all previous records for that month as to both exports and imports. Exports this week in the United States were 203, against 211 last year.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE FOR AUSTRIA

Private Franchise Abolished and Universal Suffrage Introduced. Recent Elections

Vienna, May 19.—The Austrian elections which have occurred during the last week are of far-reaching effects.
The elections were the first under the new law giving equal and universal suffrage, a reform brought about after a protracted struggle. Even more important than this is the change which the law brings about in political strength. The various mixed races, Germans, Czechs, Bohemians, Poles, Italians, Ruthenians, making up Austria's population.
The lower house of Parliament is practically reconstructed on new lines, and from now it will consist of 516 members, of which there will be 333
Germans, 107 Czechs, 42 Poles, 33
Ruthenians, 24 Slavendians, 13 Servo-Croats, 10 Italians and 5 Roumanians.

Socialists Included.

The first preparatory steps for this evolution in electorate procedure in the Legislature date back to 1890. At that time the Austrian lower house consisted of 353 members, consisting largely of representatives of the great land proprietors, the cities and chambers of commerce. Yielding to increased pressure of the Socialists or Social Democratic party, at that time not even represented in the Parliament, the lower house decided to introduce the principle of universal suffrage. A new class of voters representing the whole population was formed. This class of voters has elected since then, on the basis of equal and universal suffrage, 72 deputies.
Accordingly, the house of deputies consisted of 425 members. This party started an uninterrupted agitation among the laboring classes demanding abolition of private franchises. The political strife lasted nearly ten years till last December when the goal of universal and equal suffrage was reached in the passage by the lower house of Parliament the new universal suffrage bill. This grants an equal franchise to every male Austrian over 24 years old, who is able to read and write, and who has been a resident for at least a year in the place where an election is held.

Universal suffrage deprived the great landed proprietors and chambers of commerce of privileges. The chief difficulty to overcome was how to distribute the representation among the various Austrian localities. The solution was found finally by mutual concessions between the Germans and Czechs in Bohemia. It was arranged so that Bohemia shall elect 150 deputies, of whom 10 shall be Czechs.
The upper house was not inclined to accept the bill, the peers demanding two votes for all married men over 30 years of age. But the upper house finally gave way to the universal desire shared by the emperor, as well as by the government and the greater part of the population.

Effect of Compromise.

The decisive hour had arrived for the momentous reform when the government succeeded in obtaining a compromise between the seven nations constituting the Austrian part of this polyglot empire in regard to the number of deputies which the various nations were to send to the house in future. The essential problem of this compromise was furnished by the question how to secure the respective portion of each nation in the forthcoming parliament. An arrangement of the election district had to be carried in order to safeguard the political power of the various nations in the above described proportion. Of the great political parties which form the coming house are to be mentioned the following: Germanists, who (divided into various factions), the Czechs and Slav Nationalists, the Agrarian party, the Christian Socialist party and the Czech Democratic party.

Liberals Fared Badly.

Although it is still difficult to predict the final outcome of the elections judging by present indications the new lower house will have a majority composed of Clericals, Agrarians and Poles. The German Liberals fared badly, particularly in Vienna, where they carried only one seat. Herr Von Marobett, minister of public instruction, who is a German, lost his seat and thereupon resigned, and Dr. Von Doischatta, minister of railways, a German, and Dr. Forstner and Dr.
Placka, Czechs, have to face re-ballot. Herr Schoener, leader of the Biomarcians Germans, lost his seat. His defeat means practically dissolution in Austria of the pro-German party whose acknowledged aim was the union of the German provinces of Austria to the German empire. The Christian Socialists gained a considerable number of seats but not so many as they expected. Mayor Leuger, leader of the Christian Socialists, Prime Minister, another prominent Christian Socialist, and Dr. Adler, a well known Social Democrat, were elected in Vienna. The defeat everywhere of the German Liberals by the Socialists and the preference shown in Czech constituencies for the Socialists were striking features of the election. Emperor Francis Joseph was well pleased with the result of the elections in AMERICAN-JAPANESE SOCIETY.

New York, May 17.—Admiral Dewey provided tonight at a banquet in the Hotel Astor given for the Japanese
Army and Navy officers visitor here.
It was a brilliant climax to many entertainments of the past few days.
Viscount Aoki, Japanese Ambassador; General Baron Kuroki of Japan and Vice Admiral Ijima and members of their staff were the guests of honor.
An American-Japanese society will be formed to further friendly relations between the two countries. Admiral Dewey will likely be president. Yale College, where a number of Japanese students are, will be visited by the distinguished party.

New Lord's Day Act Does Not

the mouth" asked the speaker, and proceeding he said in British Columbia alone, 50,000 copies had been distributed every Sabbath.

Not Satisfactory, But Good.
In closing his remarks, Mr. Rochester made a stirring appeal to the people to assist the Lord's Day Alliance in their work. The effectiveness of the act was dependent upon the support of the people. Many considered it the best Sunday observance act in the world.

"Take care of the day of rest. No need to be antagonistic, but be good," said Dr. Rochester.

In reply to a query by Mr. Ewing, Dr. Rochester said the street cars and game laws would be under the jurisdiction of the provincial statutes.

Before the address the meeting was favored with a beautiful rendering of "Lead, Kindly Light," by the male quartette of the Williams' Dixie Jubilee Singers.

Three Killed in a Panic.

Fort Gibson, J. T. May 19.—At the grating exercises of the Fort Gibson colored stadium last night a lamp exploded on the stage, causing a panic among the 300 negroes present. The audience stampeded, trampling to death three persons. A score were injured.

Mayor of Dunkirk Dead.
Dunkirk, N. Y., May 19.—John T. Madison, mayor of Dunkirk, died of heart failure today. He was 70 years of age and a director of the state hammer dealers' association. Mr. Madison was a past president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in New York State.

GAME CALLED OFF AT LETHBRIDGE

Wet Grounds and Rain. A Good Story on Doc McQueen

Lethbridge, May 20.—No game today owing to the wet grounds and the cloudy and rainy weather. The Edmonton team was scheduled to play at Lethbridge today, but the game was called off.

The team had a good joke on Doc McQueen several days ago. He woke up complaining about his pitching arm, said he could not raise it and started rubbing it with sweet oil. Nagel watched him for a while and then called attention to the fact that he was rubbing his left arm. McQueen is a right-hand pitcher.

ENTERTAINED THEIR CHIEF

A Complimentary Banquet Tendered to Hon. Frank Oliver by Bulletin Staff.

The staff of the Bulletin Co. tendered their chief, Hon. Frank Oliver, a complimentary dinner on Saturday evening in the Alberta hotel. The affair was an unqualified success. Nothing was omitted in the program and nothing was left undone. It was Mr. Marshall, the manager of the Company, said, an honor tendered by the Bulletin Company but by the employees of the company who were taking advantage of their chief's visit to Edmonton to give him a pledge of their loyalty, and to convey to him in palpable form the expression of their esteem and personal regard.

Covers were spread for 43 all of whom, except Messrs. J. Picard and D. R. Fraser who represented the board of directors and were there as guests of the staff, are on the weekly payroll of the Bulletin Company. The tables were artistically set and profusely decorated with red, white and pink roses from Ramsay's and drew expressions of unstinted admiration from every individual present. Immediately in front of the seat of the guest of the evening was a great vase of white lilies and red carnations. The most conspicuous element in the beautiful decorations. The menu card, the toast list and orchestral program were printed over a tint block facsimile of the Bulletin printed on etching facsimile paper of the 15th issue of the Bulletin. Printed on March 14, 1921, with a photograph of Mr. Oliver.

Clark's orchestra rendered a repertoire of splendid music and played the accompaniments to the singers who enlivened the proceedings with their songs.

The menu and catering were above criticism. Mine host, the manager of the Alberta hotel, was warmly congratulated by the entertainers and by Mr. Oliver himself. No better dinner has ever been prepared and served at a banquet in this city in the excellent quality of the viands supplied as well as in the attentive service of the waiters.

After proposing the toast in honor of the King, Mr. Duncan Marshall, chief chairman, proposed the toast of "Our Guest," which was received with cheers and singing "He's a jolly good fellow."

In the course of his remarks Mr. Marshall said he desired to use the opportunity thus afforded to thank every member of the staff for the unselfish and energetic service during the time of the fire. He was pleased that not one employee had lost or given up his position because of the fire. He referred to the linotype operators, who, under the supervision of Mr. Geo. Corcoran and W. J. Powers, who in shifts of 5 hours each, squeezed 25 hours into every day. He also expressed his appreciation of the work done by the boys who, when temporarily out of their regular employment, had not hesitated to assist in cleaning up the premises and doing any work that came to their hand and doing it with a will. He was only expressing in words what every member of the staff felt when he said that they had a special pride in working for Mr. Oliver and the Bulletin.

In reply Mr. Oliver said that the news of the fire two months ago found a counterpart in his pleasure and surprise on this occasion. He was delighted that not an issue of the Bulletin had been skipped and warmly thanked the whole staff for their loyalty in adversity. He looked upon the gathering as a celebration of the successful rehabilitation of the Bulletin which always commanded his personal interest. The Bulletin was his work of his life, and the realization of his best ambition.

Mr. J. H. Picard spoke on behalf of the directors. He said the Bulletin succeeded because Mr. Oliver had push and confidence in the people in the country. When he came to Edmonton twenty years ago, Mr. Oliver was editor and printer of the paper and he was pleased to see that the little Bulletin had grown and required such a staff as he saw before him. After several speeches and songs by the members of the staff the banquet concluded with God Save the King and Auld Lang Syne.

A very pleasant feature of the affair, occurred when Miss Hughes, in reply to the toast to the ladies, referred in graceful terms to the work of Mrs. Oliver in establishing the Bulletin and asked the company to toast her health, which was done in true chivalrous style.

The toast list was as follows:
The King, Chairman, "Our Guest,"
Hon. Frank Oliver, Chairman; Song, H. Stutchbury; "News and Editorial,"
G. D. Hunt, John Biles; Song, W. Thompson; "Business Office," A. H. Allen; Song, J. McNeil; "City Printing," Donald Gillies; A. R. Groff; Song, Harry Cole; "The men who make the paper," E. H. Garrison; W. J. Powers; J. Adair; Song, George Hughes; Song, Neil Gillespie; "The directors," D. R. Fraser; J. H. Picard; P. R. Butchart, A. C. Fraser.

Orchestra Programme: March, The Peerless King; Overture, The Cowboy; Song, "Valley of the Sun"; The Staffing; Intermezzo, Gems of Scottish Songs; Extracoe, Poppies; Value A Country Girl; Violin Solo, Ar Va rie; Overture, Du Calif de Bagdad; Romance, Violine; Value, Meli; Intermezzo, Moonlight; March Georgia Sunset, God Save the King; Auld Lang Syne.

G. P. R. CHANGES.

New Division to be Created to Handle Western Traffic.

Important changes are about to go into effect on the G.P.R. The filling up of the western country has meant great things for the Canadian Pacific. Freight and passenger traffic have both increased enormously. It is only a few years since only two trains per week ran on the Edmonton line, which now has a double daily service. To such a degree has the development arrived that the officials have decided that it will be necessary to create a new district. Hereafter the work from Swift Current, Saskatchewan, to Laggan, Alberta, has been handled under one department, Mr. John Niblock being the superintendent. The change proposed is to make two districts of this route, one extending from Swift Current to Calgary, and the other from Calgary to Laggan or perhaps farther west. Mr. Niblock will have charge of the western division. The names of Mr. Chadleigh, assistant at Calgary, and of Mr. Launce, who have been connected with the new division. Medicine Hat will be headquarters of the latter, and Calgary will be the headquarters for the western district—Calgary News.

PHYSICAL INSTRUCTION FOR FIREMEN.

Under the superintendence of Chief Davidson vigorous steps have been taken to place the Edmonton fire department in first class condition. All the work has been systematized and the department is now in excellent shape.

Among the recent men enrolled is Walter Atys, for thirteen years gymnastic instructor in the British army. It is the intention to have him give the men two hours physical drill daily in connection with their other duties.

There is now an average of about two practice turnouts at daybreak weekly to keep the men and horses in shape. A short run is usually made, and the ladders raised and hose laid to some building which offers an opportunity for a test.

Single Fare to Alberta.

St. Paul, May 20.—The Western American railroad companies have restored the single rate to settlers for Alberta. This rate was abrogated some time ago, but the companies have yielded to the agitation for its restoration and it is likely that the C. P. R. influence had something to do with it.

Knight's Son Inmate.

Minneapolis, May 20.—A young Finnish named Lawrence Neilson, who has been working on Garriga's farm, north of Minneapolis, was brought before Police Magistrate Cutler and committed to the Brandon asylum. He will soon recover. The unfortunate man is a son of Sir Charles Schwab.

Histeric Windmill Destroyed.

Prince Albert, May 17.—The old windmill here, which was used as a look-out by the garrison during the rebellion, was blown down last night.

G.T.P. Donates $5,000.

Winnipeg, Man., May 17.—G.T.P. today donated $5,000 to the funds of Western Canada Immigration Association.
